

1. EFCF Publication procedure

- a. PROCEEDINGS with ISBN on EFCF web-site www.EFCF.com
Your contribution will be included in the PROCEEDINGS that are distributed to all conference participants on electronic medium like CD, USB-stick, After the Forum, the contributions will be made freely available on the www.EFCF.com Web-Site and an ISBN number will be associated to this publication for citation.

This is STANDARD, if there is no information or other feedback from the authors.

b. Special Issue of FUEL CELLS - From Fundamentals to Systems

Impact Factor 2012: 3.149, www.fuelcells.wiley-vch.de

The Scientific Advisory Board of the EFCF conference will select a limited number of contributions for inclusion in a Special Issue. The selected papers will need to comply with the Journal's guidelines and go through the peer-review process.

Please INFORM US, if you are interested to be included in the Special Issue. If your contribution is selected for publication in Special Issue, only Title, Authors and One-page Abstract with the note "This contribution is published in Special Issue of FUEL CELLS - From Fundamentals to Systems (www.fuelcells.wiley-vch.de)" will remain in the ISBN associated proceedings (1.a.).

2. Publication ELSEWHERE

Some authors wish to publish the same results elsewhere e.g. in other peer-reviewed journal and therefore wish not to be included in the web publication of EFCF.

Please INFORM US, if you DO NOT WANT TO BE INCLUDED in the ISBN WEB PUBLICATION of EFCF (1.a.) nor in the Special Issues (1.b.)

Title, Authors and One-page Abstract with the note "The Authors did not wish to publish their full contribution in this proceedings and possibly have published it in a journal. Please Contact the Authors directly for further Information" will remain in the EFCF proceedings.

For your information: All author requests to re-use the results in another publication will be favourably answered by the EFCF, subject to citation.
